WVWD Celebrates Water Professional Appreciation Week

Every day, the hardworking men and women of West Valley Water District (WVWD) play a critical role in maintaining our water infrastructure, responsibly managing our water resources and ensuring that our customers receive safe high quality and reliable water every time they turn on the tap.

From October 7 to October 15, WVWD will be celebrating its water professionals by highlighting the essential roles that WVWD staff play in the community through social media. Learn why they chose a career in water and what advice they would give to anyone who is interested in starting one.

Join us as we celebrate WVWD staff, by following WVWD on Instagram, Facebook and Twitter and use the hashtag #ThankWaterPros.
